

Annual MEDEA Awards open for entries & new prizes announced

The organisers of the annual MEDEA Awards launched the 2016 edition of the awards today with the announcement of several new prizes and a reminder of the deadline for submissions which is 30 November 2015.

The aim of this annual competition now entering its eighth year, is to encourage innovation and good practice in the use of media (audio, video, graphics and animation) in education. The awards also recognise and promote excellence in the production and pedagogical design of media-rich learning resources. Finalists will be invited to take part in the Media & Learning Conference taking place in Brussels on 10-11 March 2016 during which the MEDEA Awards Ceremony will take place.

This awards scheme continues to grow in recognition and quality and this year the organisers are delighted to announce several new prizes. The MEDEA Awards 2016 includes two main awards and 5 additional prize categories:

- The MEDEA Award for User-Generated Educational Media
- The MEDEA Award for Professionally Produced Educational Media
- Prize for Media-supported Language Learning
- Prize for Media-supported Science Education supported by the Inspiring Science Education Project
- Prize for Best use of Media in Higher Education
- Prize for European Collaboration in the Creation of Educational Media
- The MEDEA Special Jury Prize

The deadline to submit your entry is 30 November 2015. The submission forms are available in English, French, German, Italian, Polish and Spanish and need to be completed in one of these languages but the educational media submitted can be in any language. For more information on how to submit your entry, please see the MEDEA Awards website.

Call for Judges

The MEDEA Awards Jury is made up of over 100 professionals working in the media and learning sectors. They include educational media producers, practitioners experienced in the use of media for education and training, and stakeholders in relevant organisations from all over Europe.

Online judging takes place this year in December 2015 – January 2016. If you would like to volunteer as a judge, please visit our website and register your interest.
